-There's also some new technology on-board in the form of FordPass Connect with an embedded modem. This allows you to connect with your 'Stang in ways not previously possible. Using a smartphone app, you can communicate with your car when you're away from it. And no, not just when you miss it. The app can provide real-time info including its location, and you can lock/unlock it remotely, and even start it up. Imagine the possible party tricks.

-On the dash is the same 8.0-inch touch-screen multimedia system as before, running SYNC 3, Android Auto, Apple CarPlay, digital radio, and sat-nav. There's a very impressive 1000W B&O 12-speaker sound system as standard, too. A sub-woofer is mounted in the boot,

-The Mustang is undoubtedly one of the most iconic cars ever made. It has millions of fans the world over, and it continues to be a hot-seller on the new-car market; it's the best-selling sports car in the world at the moment
