Dealer Comments

An exceptional icon of Scandinavian design using principles from Saab's aircraft background, we don't think that you'll find another one for sale easily.

Manufactured by SAAB between 1960 and 1980, the SAAB 96 was initially offered with a three cylinder two stroke engine, but this was replaced in 1968 by a V4 four stroke engine.

Although the Saab 96 was driven most famously by Erik Carlsson in international rallies, such as the RAC and Monte Carlo rallies, with the three cylinder engine, the 96 also enjoyed WRC victories with the V4 motor in 1972, 1973 and 1976.

Best described as being in good driver condition, our car spent the last two decades with an owner in New Zealand but we believe it was originally delivered in Holland, hence the left-hand drive. There is a small number of receipts accompanying the car but not very much to go on. The car has a 5 digit odometer and a speedo in kms.
