+++ Fitted with Optional Driver's Assistance Package+++

* The Optional Driver's Assistance Package adds adaptive cruise control, blind-spot monitoring and evasive steering assist system

The ST-Line Focus comes with a 1.5-litre turbocharged three-cylinder engine mated to an eight-speed automatic transmission which puts out 134kW at 6000rpm and 240Nm of torque from 1750-5000rpm. If the engine seems a tad small, then the numbers more than alleviate any concerns.

As standard you get rain-sensing wipers, and dusk-sensing headlights, an active grille, auto stop-start, auto up and down on all windows, selectable drive modes (which tweak the throttle and transmission), cruise control, dual-zone climate control, 8.0-inch infotainment screen, native sat-nav, autonomous emergency braking, reversing camera, intelligent speed assist, and more. And then you get the ST-Line body kit and unique grille, 17-inch alloys (the Design pack changes these to 18-inch alloys), sport suspension with a 10mm lower ride height, folding, heated side mirrors, wireless phone charging pad, and more.

What safety features does it get? Standard across the range is autonomous emergency braking, with pedestrian and cyclist detection, lane keeping assist with lane departure warning, rear parking sensors with a 180-degree wide-angle reversing camera, hill hold assist, adjustable speed limiter, post-impact braking to stop you from ricocheting into another vehicle, emergency assistance, six airbags for the front and back, and a five-star ANCAP rating. One feature were big fans of is the Intelligent Speed Assist which works in with the speed sign recognition and, once set, will do its best to keep you from exceeding the posted speed limit.

The Focus is covered by Fords five-year unlimited kilometre warranty.

We Also Offer Competitive Finance Packages. Simply Ask when you inquire on this vehicle to talk to our Business Manager.
